Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Business Pathways, which operates The Women's Business Center, provides comprehensive support services for underserved business owners/entrepreneurs with particular focus on women, minorities and low-income clientele. Services include knowledge and skill building through workshops, intensive training and 1-1 consulting, industry-focused supports, access to capital, legal support, financial coaching and wrap-around supports. This programming supports participants through all stages of business development from start-up to growth and expansion. Business ownership is an essential strategy towards economic independence, both for business owners and their employees, contributing to increased prosperity in their communities. (Continued on Schedule O) All programming is provided in English and Spanish. Additionally, Mi Casa Resource Center operates ProBoPat, a program that impacts low-income inventors in Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming by connecting them to patent practitioners for patent preparation and prosecution legal services on a pro bono basis.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Career Pathways utilizes flexible, multi-service solutions designed to train, support, and connect low-income jobseekers to high-demand careers that meet their professional and personal needs. Career Pathways entails four pillars to support jobseekers: workshops, navigation, training, and coaching. The approach aligns with the efforts of economic development, education, workforce development, government and business stakeholders at the local, regional and state levels. The Career Pathways strategy offers progressive levels of education, training, support services, and credentials for specific occupations in a way that optimizes the success of individuals with varying levels of abilities and needs. (Continued on Schedule O) This approach helps individuals earn marketable credentials, engage in further education and employment, and achieve economic success.
