Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Independent Living program is our principal program. As a certified Center for Independent Living we have a mandate from the Federal government to provide the following services, and to provide additional services to meet the needs of local people with disabilities: Information, Referrals, and Options Counseling to help people find and decide on resources; Individual and Systems Advocacy to eliminate barriers facing people with disabilities; Peer Support from other people with disabilities who have been there; Independent Living Skills Training to allow people to manage their own lives, speak up for themselves, and access the programs and services they want; Transition Services for those wanting to leave a restrictive environment (like high school, the parents home, or nursing homes) for a less restrictive one, and to help people stay out of institutions. We provide these services through a framework of consumer control (people develop their own goals, and people with disabilities run the company), cross disability services (serving people of any age, with any disability), a focus on self-help and peer support, and the goal of equal access to society. In 2017 SWILC served 581 people. Of those, 35% were age 60+. The most common issues were community-based living, self-care, and personal resource management. An additional 1562 people received information & referral (without opening consumer service records).
