The Independent Living program is our principal program. As a certified Center for Independent Living we have a mandate from the Federal government to provide the following services, and to provide additional services to meet the needs of local people with disabilities.

- Information, Referrals, and Options Counseling to help people find and decide on resources
- Individual and Systems Advocacy to eliminate barriers facing people with disabilities
- Peer Support from other people with disabilities who have been there
- Independent Living Skills Training to allow people to manage their own lives, speak up for themselves, and access the programs and services they want
- Transition Services for those wanting to leave a restrictive environment (like high school, the parents' home, or nursing homes) for a less restrictive one, and to help people stay out of institutions

We provide these services through a framework of consumer control (people develop their own goals, and people with disabilities run the company), cross disability services (serving people of any age, with any disability), a focus on self-help and peer support, and the goal of equal access to society. In the 1st six months of 2018 SWILC served 237 people. Of those, 50% were age 60+. The Most common personal goals were for self-empowerment, employment, self-care and access to information and

The Housing program includes administration of different kinds of housing vouchers specifically for people with disabilities. People pay 30% of their income on their rent, and the state government makes up the difference. The program also provides skills training and assistance in finding a place to live. In the first six months of 2018 56 people recieved housing services and 130 people housing vouchers.

The Nursing Home Transition program works to advance Federal Olmstead and Money Follows the Person laws by allowing nursing home residents the choice of returning to the community. We facilitate assessments and risk mitigation, putting services in place that will allow the person to live a life of their own choosing in their own home. In the first six months of 2018 two people successfully moved from a nursing home back into the community.
