Name: Community Computer Connection Inc

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Organization exists to provide quality computer equipment to nonprofits and educational institutions at the lowest possible price so that they have the necessary tools to accomplish their own missions. By collecting working computer equipment that might otherwise be discarded or recycled and returning them to the community, the Organization strives to provide needed equipment to any qualified organizations that request it. In this manner they connect schools and non-profit organizations with computer equipment donated by companies and people in the community. Along with our core mission of providing computers to schools and nonprofits C3 has partners with several groups to enhance the technical skills of students and provide vocational training. (continued below)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

We have established partnerships with three local colleges in the Front Range area, which incorporate work study students to assist us in the refurbishment process. Students who participate in our program earn money towards their school expenses and gain hands on work experience that contributes to their professional skills. Students at the Denver School and Science and Technology (DSST) are given the opportunity of participating in an internship program with one of many companies and research facilities in the Denver area. Each semester, DSST sends 2 students to C3 to learn about computer hardware, software, and computer repair. At the end of the semester the students put together a display project. (continued below)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The school district for Adams 12 runs the Impact/Transition program that provides job coaching and training to students with special needs. One of the goals of the program is to teach students the skills to become successful and independent members of society. Two Adams 12 students have worked at our facility with their coaches each Friday morning throughout the school year. C3 is also an authorized vocational training site for the Colorado Division of Rehabilitation (DVR).
