Statement of Program Service Accomplishments:

Struggle of Love Foundation (SOLF) provides wrap around services for youth and families in Far Northeast Denver to include Montbello & Green Valley Ranch neighborhoods also known as Far Northeast Denver. Along with our year round community outreach activities, Struggle of Love has a strong focus on violence interruption, secondary prevention and address food insecurities

Through our violence interruption program SOLF has formed a community group called "Boots On The Ground" (BOG) their direct mission is to patrol the neighborhood and provide resources to residence in need as well as monitor violent activity and report to DPD in an effort to interrupt violent activity

The BOG's are also the direct contact for homicides in the community and work with faith based organization and DPD to coordinate safe havens and provide direct resources and support to families of victims. Since the launch of BOG SOLF has responded to numerous violent activities including homicides, domestic violence and gang related incidents

As a result SOLF worked with our city council to increase lighting dark, hot spots in the community to make residence feel more safe and to reduce crime in those areas. SOLF has expanded these efforts and increased our BOG's from 5 to 30 and has increased the number of families receiving assistance from 10% 60%

In addition, SOLF provides direct services to at risk youth by providing one on one and group mentoring in 5 area public schools as well as proving services to juvenile offenders through direct referrals from the probation, GRID and the City and County of Denver. SOLF currently has a case load of over 40 at risk youth participating in the program and has seen a 70% success rate overall

Lastly, SOLF operates a community food pantry that assist low income families, seniors and disabled residence. To date the food pantry has feed over 10k individuals and has disbursed over 20 tons of food

SOLF also provides delivery service to seniors and disable residence in need of this service. To date the organization has made over 300 deliveries
