Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

CRCKY provides wraparound emergency relief to individuals and families negatively impacted by immigration issues. These issues include having a relative or loved one detained by immigration enforcement and not having access to traditional forms of assistance available to citizens for catastrophes, such as Covid-19 and other life-threatening illnesses.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Car use ($400); Food and household goods ($1,013); Hotel (temporary housing)($5,310); Legal fees ($1,140); Phone calls for clients ($248); Video visitation ($26). Although we only spent $853 on food and household goods, this sum does not accurately represent the amount of food and baby supplies provided to clients. Whenever possible, clients were referred to a local food bank, God's Pantry, for food staples. When that was not possible, CRCKY partnered with another local agency, FLACA (Foundation for Latin American and Latin Culture and Arts), to bring baskets of food and baby supplies as needed. When God's Pantry was closed, clients in urgent need of food received CRCKY-funded food deliveries from Aldi. CRCKY volunteers started delivering food to clients in June, when the local Sheriff's Office stopped delivering food. CRCKY partnered with FLACA and Casa de la Cultura volunteers to bring food to any homebound immigrant in the Lexington area. Immigrant households in surrounding areas received CRCKY-funded food deliveries from Krogers.

Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Payments for rent on behalf of clients made directly to landlords to avoid evictions and homelessness. 2020 was a highly unusual year due to the pandemic. Immigrants in particular - because they may not have access to traditional forms of government assistance - were at a higher risk of eviction and homelessness. In order to prevent this, CRCKY provided emergency rent assistance to 239 families. Payments were made directly to landlords. Due to the pandemic, client interviews were conducted by phone. Most households received one month's rent assistance; some received more on a case-by-case basis. Those households with seriously ill immigrants, including those with cancer, Covid-19 and after-effects requiring hospitalization (long-haulers), and those with hospitalizations that prevented them from working were also helped on a case-by-case basis. These efforts were made in support of our local and state health departments issuance of household quarantines to prevent the spread of Covid-19. Assistance with rent relieved the pressure on wage earners to disregard the quarantines in order to maintain a home for the family.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Payment for interpretation and translation services for non-English speaking clients to assure access to CRC services and appropriate referral to other agencies. Facilitating language access is a core CRCKY value. Most of our clients do not speak English or do not speak it fluently. CRCKY is staffed entirely by volunteers and only about half of them speak Spanish or another foreign language. Consequently, when Intake Workers speak with non-English speakers, they are encouraged to use our professional interpretation service to talk with a client. We worked with Access Language Solutions, a local non-profit that charged $1 a minute for phone interpretation and has no minimum number of minutes required. Pre-pandemic, we also paid for in-person interpretation. Making interpretation services available to non-English speakers assures that they will have equal access to our direct assistance and appropriate referral to other agencies. Spanish, French and Swahili are examples of languages we encounter.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Payments were made directly to utility providers on behalf of clients to avoid utility shut-offs and/or disconnections. As Kentucky experienced one of the coldest winters we have had in a long time, it was important to maintain utility services for immigrant families. Most households had family members with Covid-19 and/or young children who would not have dealt with the cold well. Water access was particularly critical due to the pandemic. Payments were made directly to utility providers to avoid utility shut-offs and/or disconnections.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 2	We do not make grants directly to domestic individuals. We pay full or partial amounts for rent directly to landlords, for utility bills directly to providers, for hotel expenses (for temporary housing) directly to hotels, for immigration related legal expenses directly to law firms. All grants are significantly less than $5,000. When it is unfeasible to obtain food from local food banks and nonprofit meal centers, we purchase food and supplies ourselves directly from stores and deliver to clients. We have served hundreds of clients, with household members in the thousands. We keep records of people served, if you require names and addresses.
