Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Goodwill Industries of Southern Arizona, Inc. operates 16 thrift stores, one Boutique, two outlets, e-commerce sales, and a salvage operation in Southern Arizona. Goodwill's retail program gave back to the community by providing over 500 jobs at these retail locations. $14,757,758 was earned in wages and benefits by Goodwill employees, supporting the local economy. 1,504,360 people benefitted from low-cost purchases in our stores. 488,185 donors provided donated material goods. 29,291,100 pounds of goods were recycled and diverted from landfills.Beginning in March 2020, both the retail operations and program services provided by Goodwill Industries of (continued at Schedule O) Southern Arizona were significantly impacted by the COVID-19 global pandemic. Retail stores were closed for a minimum of six weeks and adult and youth workforce development programs were limited during that time. In May, retail store operations and workforce development program services resumed following federal, state, and local recommendations concerning safety.

Form 990 Part III Line 4b	The workforce development programs Goodwill Industries of Southern Arizona provided last year include: Job Connection Centers- Located inside our Goodwill retail stores; last year our 6 store-based community job connection centers served 2,455 people. Services included assistance in conducting internet job searches, completing on-line applications, and developing on-line and hard-copy resumes; referral to needed community support services; and referral to appropriate training programs including GED training, certificate/certification training, and other post-secondary training. Our Job Connection Centers also provided small-group workshop style employability, job seeking skills, and interview skills training for 43 people and hosted numerous employer hiring events or job fairs that were attended by 340 people. Goodwill-Metro Youth Re-Engagement Centers (REC)- Serving as access pipelines for low-income, disconnected, opportunity youth age 16-24; last year our Goodwill-Metro Youth Re-Engagement Centers served 323 youth. (An opportunity youth is out-of-school and out-of-work at program entry.) Staffed by knowledgeable staff that youth trust and connect with; our Centers connect youth with community services and supports that are specifically tailored to meet their individual needs including academic tutoring and a doable plan to return to school, earn a high school diploma or GED; career planning, employability skills training, and referrals to career pathway jobs; and referral to Goodwill and other area youth programs. GoodGuides Youth Mentoring- Serving 39 at-risk and juvenile justice involved youth age 12-17 last year; our GoodGuides Youth Mentoring program diverts youth from the juvenile justice system and supports them in making positive decisions by linking them with a well-qualified, trained adult volunteer mentor. Each youth receives (at-least) 4 hours per month of mentoring services for (at-least) 12 months with some mentors and youth continuing their mentee-mentor relationship well-past the program's goal of 12 months. Additionally, Goodwill supports the families of youth enrolled in our GoodGuides program by providing community resource information, referral to needed community services and supports, and job search/job placement assistance. Summer, After-School, and Out-of-School Youth Work Experience Training- Last year, 116 low-income Pima County youth participated in our Summer, After-School, and Out-of-School paid, employer-based, work experience training program. Program youth gain work experience a real work environment with productive adult co-workers and a caring supervisor; learn the value of a pay check; and develop job related hard and life related soft skills for multiple career pathways. Youth Restoration- Goodwill's Youth Restoration provides intensive, low-ratio (4:1 or 5:1) workforce training, career planning, and full-time paid work-experience training for young adult ex-offenders, juvenile offenders/ex-offenders, and at

Goodwill staff members counseled AZ@Work participants regarding labor market trends, job availability, and career advancement pathways within area high growth-high demand industries. Then, based on the participant's interests and assessed skills, Goodwill staff members assisted participants to access WIOA training dollars, attend certificate/certificate or other industry-recognized training, and obtain employment with career advancement pathways in area high-growth-high demand jobs. Adult Employer Outreach and Youth Employer Outreach- Through Goodwill staff members imbedded in the AZ@Work Employer Outreach Team; Goodwill made over 1,631 employer outreach contacts. Goodwill staff members worked to make Pima County employers aware of AZ@Work employer services including the training opportunities available for their workers and the advantages of utilizing the AZ@Work system for their workforce needs. Adult Reentry Program- Goodwill provides adult ex-offenders (age 25 and older) with the training and services needed to obtain and maintain employment in order to reduce recidivism. The program provides career planning, case management assistance, educational interventions, employability training, certificate training in high growth-high demand occupations and follow-along assistance. Last year, 116 adults were enrolled in the Reentry Program.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Bylaws state Directors must be independent and do not receive, directly or indirectly, material financial benefits from the corporation or its related parties. In connection with any actual or possible conflicts of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence and nature of his or her financial interest to the Board of Directors and members of any committees with any Board-delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest, the interested person shall leave the Board or committee meeting while the financial interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Directors or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. If the disinterested Directors have reasonable cause to believe that the interested Director has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, the disinterested Directors shall inform the interested Director of the basis for such belief and afford the interested Director an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the response of the interested Director and making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the disinterested Directors determine that the interested Director has, in fact, failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, they shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	GISA follows a compensation philosophy which is to provide compensation that is fair, reasonable, and consistent with compensation paid in the non-profit sector for positions of comparable complexity and responsibility. The goal is to recruit and retain high-performing employees and to motivate, recognize and reward excellent performance regarding contributions to the fulfillment of GISA's mission, vision and values. The Compensation Committee has been delegated such decision making power by the Board of Directors. With the assistance and recommendations of an outside, independent consultant, all compensation arrangements regarding executives and key employees of GISA are approved by the Compensation Committee which is composed entirely of individuals who do not have a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangements. The recommendations of the outside consultant are determined by market research results based on data collected from other similar non-profit organizations and include organization based performance measures. The Compensation Committee ensures that the basis upon which such compensation recommendations and decisions made are well justified, reasonable and documented. A report of the work of the Compensation Committee is then presented to the full Board.
