Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Founded in 1980, La Paloma Family Services has provided shelter, counseling, guidance and assistance to Arizona's at-risk children and families for more than 30 years. La Paloma has positively empowered thousands of Arizona's youth through a variety of programs designed to provide the tools and support they need to meet life's challenges. Our agency is committed to helping Arizona's kids transition into lives of confidence and self-sufficiency. La Paloma's dedicated staff members help these youth cultivate healthy life skills and reach their full potential. It is our mission to provide the nurturing relationships necessary to enhance each child's development of critical life skills which foster their sense of self-worth and belief in their own potential. We believe every child deserves respect, compassion, and support. This approach enables us to help kids take effective control of their lives.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is a Section 501(c)(3) organization exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(a). The Organization is also exempt from state income taxes. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes is recorded in the accompanying financial statements. Income from certain activities not directly related to the Organization's tax-exempt purpose, however, may be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. In addition, management is not aware of any matters which would cause the Organization to lose its tax-exempt status. The Organization's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years and four years respectively, after they are filed. The Organization recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in administrative and general expenses and accrued expenses in the accompanying financial statements. During the years ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, the Organization did not recognize any interest or penalties.
