Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Despite being 100 defunded by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, 62 of House of Refuges funding base on February 1, 2016 without any prior warning and three months after the fact, House of Refuge continued to house and support homeless families for the full year. With tremendous support from the City of Mesa, other human services agencies and the community at large, in 2016, House of Refuge, Inc assisted 292 homeless individuals by providing transitional housing and supportive services. Of the 91 households served, 33 of families who exited the House of Refuge program during this year transitioned from homelessness to permanent housing. Twenty - four percent of participants increased income from employment at exit. Fifty - five percent of those who exited maintained employment. These lower than usual percentages are due to the 59 families who had to be placed in other housing programs at the time of defunding and were relocated before they had a chance to complete the program at House of Refuge.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Program Service Expenses 0, Grants and allocations 0, Revenue 0 Finance Department - Downsizing, austerity, creativity and reliance on a contingency savings account were all needed during the months following the spring 2016 HUD defunding of the House of Refuge program. Some immediate and drastic measures had to be taken in order for the program to survive. However, by the end of the fiscal year, a funding plan was put into place and overwhelming support from the community replaced the denied HUD funds. Homes are once again being opened up for homeless families to move into. In addition, an annual audit of the finance department, accounting practices and policies and procedures was conducted for this fiscal year with no recommendations received for corrections or revisions.
