Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

House of Refuge, Inc assisted 312 homeless individuals by providing transitional housing and supportive services. Of the 115 total households served, 63 of families who exited House of Refuge during this year transitioned from homelessness to permanent housing. Sixty-three percent of participants increased income while 74 percent gained or maintained employment for at least 3 months. House of Refuge maintains a community garden where the families can come and harvest delicious fresh vegetables, many of which were tended to by the children in our community. Our case manager who works with our children has established a program in which the children learn how to make healthy snacks from the vegetables grown in the garden. The following services were offered through various on-site centers at no cost to the residents.
