Name: William E Morris Institute for Justice

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Institute provides training and technical assistance for legal aid programs and community groups. The Institute litigates and advocates on behalf of low-income persons. The Institute 2018 program service accomplishments include: Litigation to require the Arizona health care cost containment systems AHCCCS to remedy medicaid violations; we filed a lawsuit against AHCCCS for its failure to properly process refugee eligibility that violate the medicaid statute and constitutional due process. After lawsuit filed, each month approximately 60 immigrant transfers to emergency coverage were corrected. Proposed and presented rule petition for legal services committee to the state bar to require certain documents to be reviewed with eviction complaint. Submitted objections to AHCCCS and the Federal Government concerning the states waiver requests for our medicaid program that undercut the purpose of the program to provide health care to low income persons. We objected to requests of lifetime limits on eligibility and work-related requirements. The federal government is considering these requests and we will monitor. Continued in schedule O
