Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
The mission of Old Pueblo Community Services is to provide solutions to homelessness in the effort to end chronic homelessness in Tucson OPCS has adopted the "Housing First" model across the variety of housing solutions we offer, which include, shelter, transitional housing and permanent supportive housing. The solutions offer immediate options for persons most vulnerable, guided by the notion that there should be no barriers to housing. Substance abuse counseling, case management and employment support are then offered to ensure long-term success as persons integrate into the community.

Name: Old Pueblo Community Services

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Reentry & Veteran Communities - We have adopted the "Housing First" model across all of our programs. This allows OPCS to help homeless individuals find housing while providing treatment services for substance abuse issues. Our clients consist of both Seriously Mentally Ill (SMI) and General Mental Health and Substance Abuse (GMHSA) disorders. OPCS now offers the entire continuum of housing models which include, bridge, shelter, transitional and permanent housing as well as substance abuse counseling and life skills for both veteran and non-veteran clients. In 2017, we served 1,627 clients, of which 1,247 were male and 374 were female and 3 were transgender. Of these clients, 1,594 (98%) had some type of disability. We continue to have 8 veteran programs which include 125 transitional housing beds. We treated 476 veterans during 2017. We also served 27 households with children in our permanent families housing program.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Supportive Housing - We have grant funding for 130 units of permanent supportive housing. Clients are screened to determine those with the highest level of need. These are the clients that are housed first. There is very little attrition in this program, so there were approximately 145 clients served through our Supportive Housing Department for 2017. We also work closely with the Tucson Mayor, Jonathan Rothschild, to assess and provide permanent housing and services to our homeless veterans. All clients have access to support services through OPCS, as well as the community at large. Within both of these departments listed above, we provide behavioral health services, utilizing Cenpatico Integrated Care, which is federal Medicaid funding at our local level. This has become a significant part of the revenue, which has replaced previous federal grant funding.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Housing Development - Effective mid-2017 we have ceased this department which previously built or rehabilitated low income housing. This decision was made simultaneously with the recent change in the mission statement. We felt that this department was outside our core mission. We completed the rehabilitation and sold the last three homes during the first half of 2017.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is a Section 501(c)(3) organization exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(a). Accordingly, no provision is made in the accompanying financial statements for federal and state income taxes. Income from certain activities not directly related to the Organization's tax-exempt purpose, however, may be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Management is not aware of any matters which would cause the Organization to lose its tax-exempt status. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Organization's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years and four years, respectively, after they are filed. The Organization recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in management and general expenses and accrued expenses in the accompanying financial statements. During the year ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, the Organization did not recognize any interest and penalties.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, line 3	Housing Development - Effective mid-2017 we have ceased this department which previously built or rehabilitated low income housing. This decision was made simultaneously with the recent change in the mission statement. We felt that this department was outside our core mission. We completed the rehabilitation and sold the last three homes during the first half of 2017.
