EIN: 86-0836556

Name: Old Pueblo Community Services

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Veteran Recovery Communities Program: OPCS works with veterans who have served in the United States Armed Services including those with PTSD, substance abuse, mental illness, a criminal justice history, and those returning to the community after hospitalization, treatment, and/or combat. The program's goal is to end chronic homelessness among our veteran population. We provide them assistance while they move from street homelessness to permanent supportive housing. This includes housing, clinical treatments, necessity items, and other support services. In 2019, we served approximately 564 veterans at our five veteran communities. We operate this program in partnership with the Veterans Administration, the City of Tucson and other community partners. The program is funded entirely by government grants and contracts.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Reentry Program: Approximately 13,000 prisoners are released every year in Arizona, 2,000 of these former inmates will return to Pima County. These individuals face a range of challenges including housing, substance abuse, mental illness, and difficulty in finding employment. The goal of Old Pueblo's Reentry Program is to help these men and woman reintegrate successfully into our community to prevent recidivism. We offer them housing, counseling, substance abuse treatment, employment assistance and other support services. Last fiscal year our program served 350 individuals, representing 18% of the total reentry population in our county. At exit, approximately 154 obtained permanent housing and 40% had an income. This program is funded primarily by government grants and contract. OPCS Home Fund helps cover the occupancy cost for individuals not eligible for government support.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Supportive Housing Program: This program aims to end homelessness by providing long-term homeless individuals with dignified, supportive housing, without barriers such as pets, partners or active addictions, so they are no longer living on the streets or in shelters. People experiencing long-term homelessness have myriad vulnerabilities. Once housed, individuals can connect with health care providers and case managers, engage in support groups, establish routines, and build relationships with friends and family, and move on to more independent living, decreasing their need for services over time. Clients are screened to determine those with the highest level of need. These are the clients that are housed first. All clients have access to support services through OPCS, as well as with agency in the broader community.

OPCS Home Fund: While some of OPCS government funded programs cover all or part of a client's housing fees, some clients do not meet the specific criteria to be eligible for these programs. The OPCS Community Home Fund helps pay for their occupancy cost until they gain income through employment, Social Security, or other sources. The fund pays for rental application fees and deposits for clients moving into Section 8 housing. It also covers specific, emergent needs to remove barriers to housing and employment. In addition, the fund helps meet the basic needs of families with children entering our programs. Last year, we disbursed $102,035 in assistance to clients. The Home Fund is made possible by community grants and individual donations via the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit.

Homeless Work Program: Launched in 2016 as a pilot project, the HWP has rapidly grown into a model program that offers individuals a pathway out of homelessness through work, community collaboration, and assistance in navigating support services. Now in its fourth year of implementation, the HWP continues to achieve impressive results. To date, the program has provided employment to 824 homeless individuals. Most importantly, over one third of the participants who left the program are now in permanent housing. In addition to improving lives, the program contributes to the beautification of our city's public spaces and in changing the perception of the homeless in our community. A total of 239,685 lbs. of trash was collected and 262 public sites cleaned since the program was launched. The HWP is made possible through funding from the City of Tucson, Pima County, individual donations via the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit, and from community partners like the Tucson Change Movement.

Supplemental Information

Part IV, Line 1b:	The Organization holds funds for Second Chance Tucson, a reentry collaborative, for two events held annually.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	The Organization is a Section 501(c)(3) organization exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(a). Accordingly, no provision is made in the accompanying financial statements for federal and state income taxes. Income from certain activities not directly related to the Organization's tax-exempt purpose, however may be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Management is not aware of any matters which would cause the Organization to lose its tax-exempt status. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Organization's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years and four years, respectively, after they are filed. The Organization recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in management and general expenses and accrued expenses in the accompanying financial statements.
