PART I, LINE 2	Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada's (CCSN) monitoring procedure is consistent with the Office of Refugee Resettlement. CCSN ensures that federal funds are used for authorized purposes in compliance with federal program laws, regulations, grant agreement terms and conditions, and that performance goals are achieved. Programmatic compliance is determined by evaluating a project's technical progress toward stated goals and objectives as outlined in federal program laws and regulations. Financial compliance is determined by evaluating the manner in which federal funds are expended, allocated and reported. The onsite monitoring includes random case file reviews, client interviews, staff interviews and performance report reviews. In addition, technical assistance is also provided on areas that may need strengthening to ensure quality services for refugees.
