Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Nevada PEP provided over 10,000 family support service hours for families with children having emotional and behavioral challenges. Nevada PEP Family Specialists provided education, advocacy, information and referral services to assist families in accessing services. Family Specialists provided family support at 23 court hearings, and 177 Child and Family Team/Wraparound meetings statewide. Provided compassion and understanding of the unique experiences and needs of children and families while helping find the information, support and resources needed at home, in the community and at school. In addition Nevada PEP held monthly family to family support group meetings in both English and Spanish providing the opportunity for networking, sharing of resources, and peer support.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Responded to 1,965 phone, in person, mail, and electronic requests for information and referral to help educate and empower families and professionals to improve outcomes for children with disabilities. At 242 schools accross the state, Nevada PEP provided one on one education and follow up support to families of children with disabilities, empowering them to participate effectively in helping their children meet developmental and functional goals. Provided 19 IEP Clinics and 154 trainings to help families better understand their rights and responsibilities under disability and education policy and other related topics such as: Positive Behavior Interventions, Bullying Prevention, and the importance of reading instruction. Maintained interactive website and provided 58 live webinars, and archived workshops to increase access for families to the valuable information. Provided a statewide lending library available to all families to help them better understand their child's disability.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Promoted meaningful parental engagement and involvement in the education of their children and in school reform activities to improve services and results for children with disabilities ages 0-26. Nevada PEP focused on early identification by disseminated Response to Intervention brochures and information on typical early childhood development. PEP provided 11 workshops on early intervention, early childhood transition and positive behavior approaches for young children. Nevada PEP provided individual support through over 1,990 contacts with parents of children 5 years old and under. PEP provided "College Bound" guides and 28 transition trainings to increase self awareness and self advocacy skills of youth with disabilities; improving the opportunity for successful high school completion and transition to adult life. Nevada PEP disseminated printed newsletters and monthly E-newsletters, containing up to date information on education, local trainings, national issues and topics of interest.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4: Nevada PEP is recognized as the Parent Training Information Center for Nevada, offering a unique set of services to families who have children with all types of disabilities. Nevada PEP strengthens families with Education, Empowerment and Encouragement through training, support and Individual Assistance. Nevada PEP is a family driven organization dedicated to educating parents and professionals throughout Nevada's 17 counties. Nevada PEP offers services through the Neighborhood Family Service Centers and is a collaborative partner in the Children's Mobile Crisis Response Teams Division. Nevada PEP believes that the family is the fundamental unit in society, children with disabilities without regard for the severity of the disability, have an inherent value, that all life has a purpose, that communities benefit from providing appropriate interventions and that individuals with disabilities make a valuable contribution to society. In this fiscal year Nevada PEP has provided trainings, free of charge, to over 1,321 individuals, 94% of participants reported that the workshops provided them the information they needed to make decisions about their child's education. During this period, Nevada PEP supported families and youth with disabilities to attend Statewide conferences on transition to adulthood and educational best practices. Nevada PEP has provided the parental perspective on 59 committees throughout the state, with a goal of improving local and state programs for children and their families. Over 19,266 individuals received information and support services. In this fiscal year, 1,726 new families contacted Nevada PEP for intensive Individual Assistance. According to the annual PTI National survey, 96% of parents reported that PEP provided them with the relevant information they needed to make decisions about their child's education. Nevada PEP maintains two offices, one in Las Vegas and one in Reno, serving families in rural Nevada by toll free telephone, email, website, and traveling to the rural communities.
