Opportunity Village ARC receives donated vehicles. All donated vehicles are processed through the thrift store call center. The thrift store dispatch will record the name of the person donating the car, information about the car, and will arrange for Carz1 LV to pick up the donated car. Carz1 LV remits the amounts collected on donated cars to Opportunity Village ARC when the car sells, less a commission and any expenses incurred in picking up the car. Dispatch also receives a detailed sale sheet when the car sells and is responsible for issuing 1098Cs for all sales over $500. Every dispatch employee is trained on preparing 1098Cs.

Enable is a program designed for men and women with intellectual/developmental disabilities who have intensive and specific support needs. The program focuses on a curriculum that enhances life skills, vocational training, and meaningful hobbies. Enable has grown roots in the local community, and participants can routinely be found volunteering at other non-profits throughout town. In addition to volunteering. Activities such as bowling, exercise classes, meditation, music appreciation, gardening, healthy eating habits, and more are offered regularly both on and off campus.

Vocational Training Programs:

Entry Program is for people who are not quite ready for Pathway to Work, but are ready for some off-campus vocational training. After 6-12 months, the goal is for participants to move on to an OV contract position, Pathway to Work, or competitive employment.

Pathway to Work (PTW) is a community-integrated "on-the-job" training program is conducted at a partner job site with daily instruction. While training at the community partner's job site, each Pathway to Work participant is provided with individualized instruction, job coaching and work experience. PTW is made possible through collaboration between Opportunity Village, the Desert Regional Center, the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation, and our community business partners. PTW takes place at various sites throughout the community and lasts for three to six months.

Job Discovery Programs are a partnership between the Clark County School District (CCSD) and Opportunity Village. The programs are operated at unique not-for-profit sites throughout the community. The Partnership was formed to provide intensive vocational training in a natural working environment to CCSD students who require additional vocational training to become successfully employed. The Job Discovery Program (JDP) is primarily focused on soft vocational skills such as; mock interviewing, resume writing, dress code, working as a group and independently, appropriate workplace interactive and communication with coworkers, supervisor and customers, the importance of punctuality and attendance, time management and adaptability.

Career Exploration Program (CEP) is a community based on-the-job training program with class time instruction. Instruction includes, but is not limited to, viewing instructional videos, participation in discussion about rules and task performance, practice with interviewing and resume building and practice of individual skills and techniques used on the job.

Employment Training Centers (ERC) Employment Resource Center trainees work on building skills in a variety of areas, and are meant to help prepare them for community employment. Training areas include prevocational skills social skills, skills for independence, enrichment, and paid work experiences. In this structure, participants work on both hard and soft skills related to employment, identify areas of skills and interest, and earn wages.

Fine and Performing Arts:

The Fine & Performing Arts Program serves individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in music, dance, theater and visual arts. The program was designed to increase individuals' awareness of the arts, support their creative passions and offer individualized and group training. The program promotes self-expression, social interaction and develops peer relationships. Participants have the opportunity to showcase their visual artwork for exhibition and sale, and to perform on the stage at Opportunity Village and community events throughout the year.

Neighborhood Club - Distributed Access and Involvement Locations:

Premise

- The continuum of client services is deficient an intermediate approach, slotted between intensely supportive campus-based structures and the more independent Job Discovery Program, Pathway to Work, and Service Contracts training and employment options
- Revenue growth in Retail, Document Management, Mail Center, and other OV business lines requires increased community presence, awareness, and customer convenience

Advantages

- Clients access nearby services and growth opportunities (e.g. YMCA, library, park, grocery stores, training/employment locations, etc.) while maintaining small group activity accommodations and staffing supports
- Reduce travel time and cost to access community supports within constrained program day
- Provide advanced progressive programming structure with greater CMS alignment
- Improve client and staff convenience with greater location/worksite options - and services (e.g. proximity to residence, transit routes, schools, child care centers, etc.)

-Improve flexibility for cyclical relocation needs based on demographic shifts

-Incorporation of attended OV business lines of Retail (drop-off site with sort by hourly-pay clients), Document Management (drop-off), and others enhances operational sustainability, broadens community awareness, and improves access for customers and donors

-Leverage additional locations for volunteers, assessments, supportive employment, and other program growth

-Enhance RD and Marketing reach (e.g. Santa Run registration and pick-up)

Youth Services:

Growing Together @OV is a newly launched program serving youth from ages 3 to 18 with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Through evidence based, outcome driven applied behavioral analysis, Opportunity Village's Board Certified Behavioral Analyst supervises delivery of therapeutic services in clinical settings and in private residences to reach outcomes.

Very Important Arts (VIA) serves special needs students throughout the Clark County School District from ages 6 to 17. Reaching over 1,800 students in FY20, Opportunity Village mentors in music and movement help improve upon student's fine motor skills, social skills, and personal confidence.
