Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Funds awarded by program grants through policy are used to serve residents in Snohomish County. In addition, funding is priority sensitive and applicants must state clearly the intent of the program and who they seek to serve. As a condition for receiving a grant, grantees sign an agreement that includes the statement that funds must be used for the specific program and purpose as outlined in the proposal. Additionally, grantees must sign a Counter-Anti-Terrorism Compliance measure Form that states the agency will not knowingly re-grant funds to organizations and project outside of the United States. Compliance to the grantee letter of agreement is monitored on an ongoing basis and yearly for grants that are on a 3-year cycle. If problems occur, the grant is re-evaluated. Grants can be terminated if problems are not resolved. Through our CORE Collaboratives, we support and invest in groups of community partners with a shared action plan to move families with young children out of the traps of poverty and down an open road to success.

Form 990, Part III, Line 2	In January 2017, United Way of Snohomish County adopted a new collaborative approach utilizing two national models: Collective Impact and a 2-Generational approach. This new work is called CORE: Creating Open Roads to Equity, our new, collaborative approach that fundamentally changes the way partners work together, building a system of care around families. Through our CORE Collaborative, we support and invest in groups of community partners with a shared action plan to move families with young children out of the traps of poverty and down an open road to success.
