Part II-B, Line 1	El Centro also participates in local, state, national and international coalition building, and advocate for immigrant/human/civil rights and social justice. Throughout our history, we have worked in several advocacy areas. We have recently begun creating voter education campaigns as well as spreading awareness about the importance of being counted in the Census. The organization has also been advocating in areas of law enforcement and education, police accountability, and closing the academic achievement gap faced by Latino youth, and promoting better transportation options for low-income people and communities of color.

Part III, Line 4	The scope of El Centro de la Raza's art collection includes paintings, drawings and posters that highlight civil rights and social justice themes. El Centro de la Raza also maintains an archive of its own historic documents and materials. As a voice and hub of the Latino community, our 45-year history is a community history. It is a history of the Latino community and people of color that is often underrepresented in mainstream historical accounts. We have actively been working to document and share our history as a way to educate and give pride to our community.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	El Centro, ECR and NBHHIA are Washington nonprofit corporations, exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. They qualify for the charitable contribution deduction and have been classified as organizations that are not private foundations under Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Organization's income tax filings are subject to examination by various taxing authorities. ECDLR Community Development LLC and PRM Manager LLC are disregarded entities for tax purposes. The Organization follows the provisions of uncertain tax positions as addressed in FASB Accounting Standards Codification Subtopic 740-10, Income Taxes. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.
