Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
Our work is directed by the communities we serve. We contribute our legal knowledge and skills to support initiatives that are identified by the community to enhance the community's power. We hold ourselves accountable to principles of race, equity, and human rights. Through our community-led advocacy, we hold government agencies, institutions, and other actors accountable to address the root causes of racism and their manifestation in unfair treatment and inequitable access to resources, power, and opportunities based on race. We believe that to achieve justice, all communities should have a voice in the creation and implementation of the policies, laws, and legal systems that impact them. We believe that our legal system must be held accountable by the people most impacted by it.

Part IV, Line 2b: Explanation of escrow account liability	CLS routinely receives client funds which are held in pooled trust accounts until such time as the funds are needed for costs or when they are disbursed to the clients as part of a settlement. The amounts in these pooled trust accounts are recorded as an asset with a corresponding liability. CLS has no interest in or rights to these funds. During 2008, CLS entered into an agreement with the Legal Foundation of Washington to administer settlement funds for certain law-related charitable and educational purposes. These funds are being held in a separate bank account and distributed as agreed. The amounts held for others are recorded as an asset with a corresponding liability. CLS has no interest in or rights to these funds.
