Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)	All monies given for individuals or families are given directly to a landlord or a service provider. A case manager completes a request for assistance form that includes all of the information needed to review and approve the request. The executive director then reviews the requests and approves and sends on to the Office Administrator who processes the claim and verifies accuracy and appropriateness of the request. The Office Administrator then writes a check for the assistance and it is signed by the Executive Director. The Office Administrator then mails or delivers the check to the vendor. Since nearly all of this money is from government sources administered by the city or the county, the Office Administrator then files an invoice to the appropriate government agency for reimbursement for the specific assistance. County or city contract managers then review the requests and approve the reimbursement for the money expended by the agency.

Significant program services not listed on prior year return Part III line 2	In July 2019 we opened up a Cars to Housing safe parking program that expanded our services to five more families at a time. This program was housed at a local church in their parking lot. It was funded by a grant from the City of Everett and local community and faith group partners. We also expanded our program to house families in emergency shelter in February 2020 when we opened our Miracle House Program that houses two more families at a time in a house owned by a local Faith group. This program was paid for and staffed by donations and current shelter staff.
