Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Healthy Connections is our direct-service work with families - providing them with information, resource referral, as well as application assistance and follow-up, to ensure they successfully connect with the community services they need. We do this work in a number of ways - by staffing three statewide hotlines (the Apple Health for Kids hotline, the Family Health Hotline, and the Family Food hotline) as well as online via our website ParentHelp123.org, and our in-person outreach work in King and Snohomish Counties. Our multi-lingual staff are trained in how to support families who are seeking help, identify resources that might help them, and provide connections to those services in whatever way is easiest for families. Our staff are experts in the topic areas such as health insurance, nutrition programs, and child development and parenting resources.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Community and Systems is our work to improve the larger systems that families need to navigate when seeking help. This work includes things like facilitating community coalitions on topic areas like Medicaid Outreach and Immunization access. We also work directly with partners in the community, providing technical assistance and training around important issues that affect families. At WithinReach, we are experts in Help Me Grow, a nationally-recognized model for identifying vulnerable children and linking them and their families to community-based services and supports. We work in communities across the state who are interested in replicating the Help Me Grow model, and provide them with tools and information to implement this work locally. We also work at the state-level to advocate for and support efforts to build better systems for families.
