Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

LASA provides housing to families experiencing homelessness. Housing included emergency shelter of 90 days or less, and permanent housing including support services. Housing services comes with the provision of utilities, furnishings, case management and other services. LASA provides holistic services to 79 families in our housing programs. To do this, we include services that go beyond housing and essential needs to services that build community and help families establish their homes. These services included our third annual Santa Cruise with free Santa pictures for families, food for Thanksgiving and Christmas meals, and gifts for all family members. Extra presents were also provided to over a dozen families not in LASA housing programs. Each family entering housing was provided a box of cleaning supplies and access to household goods to setup their homes. Two of our properties have community gardens where tenants grow flowers, fruits and vegetables. These services are supported by a number of local businesses, civic and religious groups and individuals. LASA's Client Services Center provided critical services to the community. 183 households facing water disconnection were served with water assistance. 626 people accessed our Essential needs closet. 52 households were provided Goodwill bus vouchers. 54 emergency rent payments. A free flu shot clinic. Other services included referrals to the NW furniture bank, use of the computer lab, access to emergency food and other. LASA also operated staffed 20 hours per week at the Court Resource Center in Tacoma.
