We were able to provide 65 educational sessions for 260 participants. Our free clothing boutique provided clothing to 300 women. Jubilee served 2500 women in our community through phone and in-person referrals. In FY20, using a holistic program model that includes ten key development areas, each with its own objective, Jubilee continued its commitment to helping women experiencing poverty and crisis transform their lives, ending their homelessness or domestic violence situation permanently. -Basic Needs: Meet housing, food, and safety needs. -Physical Health: Address medical needs, create a health maintenance plan. -Trauma, Depression & Mental Health: Stabilize mood, stay clean and sober. -Communication & Connections: Increase emotional awareness, cultural competency skills. -Legal: Resolve outstanding legal issues -Stable Income (Employment or Education): Determine career pathway, obtain a living wage job, gain education or vocational skills. -Financial Health: Address debt, manage money. -Independent Housing: Attain and maintain stable, independent housing. -Personal Safety Net: Create communities that provide love and a sense of belonging. -Spiritual Health: Increase problem-solving skills, life balance, lack of prejudice. To accomplish the above objectives, Jubilee's program offers the following: -Housing & Care Management: Jubilee uses a community of care model that gives women resources, support, and time to make changes and increase resiliency. Our structured approach to community living incorporates accountability and responsibility. Residents are responsible for maintaining the household and participating in weekly house meetings. All women pay 30% of their income in rent, with a minimum of $75 per month, which helps them build a positive rental history and housing reference. Residents have the opportunity to practice skills in effective communication, conflict resolution, boundary setting, cultural understanding, relationship building, and self-care, all of which are taught in life skills classes at Jubilee. -Community Meals: Jubilee schedules healthy community meals, prepared and served by volunteers 2-4 evenings per week. Community meals help relieve resident's extremely limited food budgets. Meal volunteers join the residents for dinner, providing an extended network of community support. -Free Clothing Boutique: Jubilee's free clothing boutique is an important resource for approximately 900 low-income and homeless women annually in King County. Women receive in-season, professional, and casual clothing, shoes, and accessories through a dignified shopping experience. All of our clothing is donated by generous community members and offered at no cost to shoppers. -Learning & Oppor
