Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Guided by the belief that every woman is worthy, WWIN empowers women in Washington State to achieve economic stability through higher education and living wage careers. We accomplish this by offering Pathways to Success: coaching to create a roadmap to economic stability; Star Scholars: removing financial barriers to higher education; Career Launch: providing new and upcoming college graduates with career planning resources. For additional program information, see Schedule O.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Statement of Program Services (Cont.)	In addition to being ready to transform their lives, applicants must meet all of WWINs eli gibility criteria and submit all required documentation to be considered. WWIN helps women reach economic stability-transforming their lives and their community. WWIN inspires wome n to see what's possible and helps equip them with the higher education they need to reach their full potential. We walk with each woman on her path to success, supporting her, adv ocating for her, connect her with opportunities, and helping her voice be heard and amplif ied along the way. In the spring of 2019, WWIN transitioned all one-year Education Grantee s to Star Scholars, eligible to be considered for continued WWIN funding of up to $5,000 e ach academic year and up to $20,000 maximum throughout their college careers until graduat ion.All of our Star Scholars are women who have demonstrated excellent alignment with our vision, mission, and values. They are women who have overcome life's obstacles with a posi tive outlook, resilience, and determination, and who have decided that higher education is a critical step along their journey to achieve economic stability. WWIN walks alongside t hem on that journey by providing encouragement and empowerment as well as financial suppor t while they pursue their degrees.Acceptance into the program is competitive. In our appli cation cycle for the 2020-2021 academic year, we received 576 applications, 185 of which w ere eligible for review. As of July 2020, we are in the process of selecting 90 new Schola rs. In addition to being ready to transform their lives, applicants must meet all of WWINs eligibility criteria and submit all required documentation to be considered. We had 41 St ar Scholars graduate in Spring and Summer 2020, 40 with Bachelors degrees and 1 with an As sociates degree. Their average GPA is 3.72. Our graduates attended 21 approved and accredi ted colleges and universities in Washington state.In July 2019, we launched the Pathways t o Success coaching grant program. This is designed for women who are at the first step in their journey towards economic stability and need guidance to create their road-map to suc cess. Women who are selected for this program work one-on-one with a certified coach for s ix months to determine their goals and concrete steps for achieving those goals. WWIN awar ded 17 of these grants in FY20, totaling $30,600. Four women have completed the six-month program to date.In July 2019, WWIN launched the Resiliency Fund for our Star Scholars. Thi s program was designed to provide our Scholars with more comprehensive support by assistin g with expenses outside of school that could impact their ability to continue with their e ducation.Current WWIN Star Scholars can apply for a Resiliency Fund grant at any time. On their application, they explain what expense they need help funding, the special circumsta nces, and how they plan to cover the expense if they cannot receive help from WWIN. There is a lifetime maximum of $2,000 in Resiliency funding for each Scholar. Requests range from $50 to $2,800 and the average approved award is $766. This program became extremely critical during the global pandemic, as Scholars suddenly faced new and unexpected challenges: their education quickly transitioned to virtual learning only, their children stayed home from school while childcare centers closed, and they lost work on campus or in the service industry. Many were navigating the process of applying for unemployment while simultaneously studying for remote finals and homeschooling their children. WWIN was able to step in during this incredibly challenging and stressful time to provide some relief helping Scholars buy groceries for their families or pay rent and utility costs when they had no other means. We were fortunate to receive additional support from several of our major donors to make it possible for us to respond quickly to this crisis and prevent our Scholars from dropping out of school. In July 2019, we launched the Career Launch coaching grant program. This is designed for women who are graduating soon or have recently graduated with their college degree and could use support and guidance during the transition from higher education to career. Women who are selected for this program work one-on-one with a certified coach for six months to learn about strategic job searching, practice interview skills, discuss salary negotiation, determine if an employer will be the right fit, and navigate the new workplace. The global pandemic in 2020 created additional challenges for these women. Companies were no longer actively hiring and interviews were canceled. WWIN allowed two women in the Career Launch coaching program to put their grants on hold temporarily during this time so that they could re-focus their efforts and work actively with their coaches once again when things began to re-open. WWIN awarded 7 of these grants in FY20, totaling $10,800. WWIN has always strived to provide women with opportunities, inspiration, support, and advocacy as they work towards the achievement of their goals. Our new program strategies are designed around supporting a woman to define her own pathway and goals, to complete her education, to connect with a career that she is passionate about and that can sustain her financially, and to be able to advocate for herself and others. We are so grateful to everyone who participated in our strategic planning process. We are excited to continue implementing our new programs strategy during fiscal year 2020 with the launch of three new WWIN grant programs: Pathways to Success, Resiliency Grants and Career Launch.
