Explanation: We hereby request waiver of any late filing penalties for the following reasons This organization typically files for an extension in order to file form 990. We expected to be on extension for the 2020 return as well. This year there was a miscommunucation between the Treasurer and the tax return preparer. The preparer thought the Treasurer was going to file for the extension. When the preparer learned that no extension had been filed, he attempted to file an extension. This was on June 22. The extension was rejected, as it was late. The return is late due to an oversight. Please do not penalize the organization due to an oversight. This is an all-volunteer board. We have always attempted to file within the proper time frame. The record will show we have a good history of timely filing.
