Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

24 Hour Programs - We believe that all people have similar desires in life, to be around others, to be accepted, to pursue their dreams. To contribute and be helpful. Those who live with intellectual and developmental disabilities are no different. Both our home and work programs help those we support interact more in the community because that is part of enjoying life. We help people pursue their interests that might include creating jewelry, crocheting, getting involved in sports, or becoming entrepreneurs by selling what they create. Travel is also important, and weve helped people go to places like London, Disneyland, and the Oregon coast. Some want to visit parents or relatives in other states.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Supported Living - Some people live independently in apartments, yet need assistance and training with a variety of daily living tasks from managing personal health to accessing community resources and activities. They can always access our 24-hour emergency support network when something unexpected happens. More people with disabilities and their families are embracing the idea that people with disabilities can be successful in their homes when they receive the right kind and amount of help. Our services allow people to learn, grow and contribute to their community. We tailor our support to meet each persons needs.
