Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

DVRC takes a holistic approach to providing empowering programs and services to survivors/victims of Domestic Violence. DVRC has three main programs that provide free and confidential services to survivors of domestic and intimate partner violence. These three programs are Advocacy, Counseling, and Housing. 1 Housing The Housing component offers two types of shelter/housing programs. They are emergency crisis shelter (Monikas House) and transitional housing (Mary Mac House). Both of DVRCs housing programs provide wrap-around services that meet the very specific needs of domestic violence survivors. 2 Counseling The Counseling program provides individual and group therapy services to survivors of domestic violence and their children ages 5 years and older. The counseling program also provides services to adolescents who have experienced teen dating violence. Additionally, the counseling program provides outreach programs to educate the community presenting information about domestic violence, teen dating violence and the effects of domestic violence on children. This past year the counseling program expanded psycho-educational groups offered, including a culturally specific group for South East Asian survivors, offering an outreach group at a local shelter for teens and developing a continuation group for individuals who have graduated from the 24-week psycho-educational group. 3 Community Advocacy DVRCs Community Advocacy program assists clients with filing assistance for protective orders, court accompaniment, safety planning, crisis intervention & case management, information & resource referral, DHS client advocacy, as well as outreach to culturally specific communities (South Asian Women, Latin X & LGBTQ).
