Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
We believe that youth and families can overcome barriers and thrive. We work to reduce symptoms by building the capacity for interpersonal and community connections, relationships, expanding strengths, self-worth, hope, and health. Utilizing a foundational trauma informed approach that views resiliency and recovery as key components, a menu of interventions informs individual care. Innovative treatment modalities are evidence-based and continually updated while clinical staff are trained and supervised in their ongoing implementation. We value the voice and aspirations of youth and families, while honoring their story is core to the Kairos clinical model. Success is measured by the progression of change which is captured in the CANS/ANSA by evaluating an increase in strengths and a decrease in needs.

2 Check this box  if the organization discontinued its operations or disposed of more than 25% of its net assets.
