Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Hospice of Redmond provides compassionate hospice care to terminally ill patients and their caregivers. Services include in nursing visits at the patient's place of residence, pain and symptom management, aide assistance, social services, spiritual counseling, respite, massage, acupuncture and bereavement support for the caregivers and the community at large. Hospice receives funds from Medicare and other insurances, but all services are available regardless of the patient's insurance or ability to pay. The money received from insurances does not pay for respite services, patient therapies, volunteer or bereavement services. Hospice works with other healthcare communities, residential facilities and foster homes to provide education and support about end of life care. Hospice provided comprehensive care to 194 patients and their families during last year. Over 7,000 hours of volunteer hours were utilized in performing the services of the organization.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	The Hospice is exempt from federal and state income taxes with the exception of taxes on net profits from unrelated business income, under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). On July 1, 2009, the Hospice adopted new accounting guidance related to uncertain income tax positions. The Hospice will recognize in its financial statements the benefit of a tax position when it believes that tax position will more likely than not be sustained on audit based on the technical merits of the position. For an exempt organization, uncertain tax positions could result from unrelated business income activities or actions that jeopardize its status as tax exempt, such as political activity, substantial lobbying expenditures or excessive unrelated business activities. The Hospice has concluded that it had no unrecognized income tax benefits at July 1, 2017, or June 30, 2018, and it has no tax positions for which it estimates a significant change over the next 12 months.
