Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

Tax Positions

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require an entity's management to evaluate tax positions taken by the entity and to recognize a tax liability if the entity has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. For non-profit organizations this would result from engaging in activities that are not exempt from income taxation under the Internal Revenue Code.

Management does not believe the Corporation has engaged in any transaction or activity that is not exempt from income taxation and/or that would result in income taxation and has therefore concluded that as of June 30, 2016 there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of an income tax liability or other disclosure in the financial statements or the accompanying notes.

The Corporation files information and income tax returns in the United States and various state and local jurisdictions. The Federal income tax and informational returns for the years ended June 30, 2017, 2016 and 2015 are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service generally for 3 years after the returns were filed. State and local jurisdictions have statutes of limitation that generally range from 3 to 5 years. There are currently no examinations in progress.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

Form 990 is provided to management and the Governing body prior to signing. The Governing body is not always able to review prior to signing. Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Should a conflict of interest arise and be noted, or disclosed, management and the Board would take appropriate action. There is low turnover of management and Board members and so annual conflict of interest statements are not required, but the policy is adhered to and monitored.
