1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
 Magdalene Home is a resident program specializing in assisting teenage girls between the ages of 14 and 17 who are either pregnant or parenting. The agency provides them with a safe nurturing environment in which to learn the skills of being a parent. The agency provides each mother with a home in the form of food, shelter, supervision, and guidance while preparing for or caring for a newborn child. Many of these teenagers come from disadvantaged homes or abusive situations. Our agency provides each of these young adults with an alternative to having an abortion.
