Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

We have continued to identify groups we wanted to reach out to: young teens and their parents, survivors with addiction issues, survivors who are homeless, male survivors and partners of survivors. Our strategy continues to strive to change cultural norms that accept the use of personal power-based violence; this includes bullying, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking and human trafficking. We hired three new advocates and one full time Work Source Oregon volunteer. We continue to receive support from local residents. In addition, we created and implemented our Unconditional Self Love support group which was taken up by the state DHS office to provide support to their staff members.
