Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

HEAD START The Head Start Program is a program of the United States Department of Health and Human Services that provides comprehensive education, health, nutrition, and parent involvement services to low-income children and their families Head Start is made up of four crucial programs 1) Early Head Start, 2) Migrant Head Start, 3) Regional Head Start, and 4) Center-Based Programs and 5) Early Head Start Child Care Partnership With each one of these important components being provided, every child and family is one step closer to living healthy and self-sufficient lives The Organization has twelve Head Start centers throughout Kings County

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

CHILD DEVELOPMENT This program provides a variety of services throughout Kings County Assistance is available to locate quality child care and infant care for eligible families Parents in low-to-moderate income families must be working, in training, incapacitated, seeking employment or referred by another agency to receive subsidized child care Referrals and informational services are available to all

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

INTERVENTION, PREVENTION, AND SUPPORTIVE SERVICES Crisis Support Services is a department that is comprised of three essential programs to Kings County residents who may find themselves in need of immediate intervention and support to assist them in dealing with past abuse, stopping current abuse and preventing future abuse. Crisis Support Services provides services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault, as well as families at risk of child abuse as identified by agencies such as the courts, school districts and Child Protective Services. Crisis Support Services team staff members are all fluent in delivering services based on the Family Unity model which recognizes strengths over deficits in crisis situations. As such, programs are operated with an emphasis on person empowerment through the use of existing personal strengths and resources as well as acquiring additional information and skills. Other programs and services such as the Youth Service Program integrate systems of care that support and assist eligible pregnant and parenting adolescents and their children. The Cal Learn Program provides resources to assist young men and women in becoming responsible parents and prevent further unplanned pregnancies.

Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Organization has qualified as a non-profit organization and has been granted tax-exempt status pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701(d) and is exempt from federal and state of California income taxes. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosures guidance about positions taken by an entity in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all the positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Organizations returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4 INTERVENTION, PREVENTION, AND SUPPORTIVE SERVICES Crisis Support Services is a department that is comprised of three essential programs to Kings County residents who may find themselves in need of immediate intervention and support to assist them in dealing with past abuse, stopping current abuse and preventing future abuse. Crisis Support Services provides services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault, as well as families at risk of child abuse as identified by agencies such as the courts, school districts and Child Protective Services. Crisis Support Services team staff members are all fluent in delivering services based on the Family Unity model which recognizes strengths over deficits in crisis situations. As such, programs are operated with an emphasis on person empowerment through the use of existing personal strengths and resources as well as acquiring additional information and skills. Other programs and services such as the Youth Service Program integrate systems of care that support and assist eligible pregnant and parenting adolescents and their children. The Cal Learn Program provides resources to assist young men and women in becoming responsible parents and prevent further unplanned pregnancies. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 5 NUTRITION EDUCATION The Nutrition Education and Hunger Prevention Department consists of programs categorized into three domains: Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program-Education (SNAP-Ed), Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), and Summer Food Service Program (SFSP). The SNAP-Ed program provides physical activity and nutritional education to qualifying families and community-based organizations/centers. The program also strives to work with work sites, schools and community centers to create a healthy environment which supports fruit and vegetable consumption as well as daily physical activity. CACFP supports local child care program that provides nutritious meals to children. The Organization assist child care providers in receiving reimbursements, preparing menus and increasing consumption of fruits and vegetables as part of healthy diet. Over 40 local child care providers are able to enhance their services through this program. The SFSP provides free healthy foods to children who are low-income and under the age of 18. The free meals meet the federal nutrition guidelines, which are typically served in the summer months from June to August. Meal sites are located in different areas throughout Kings County.
