990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4a	Established in 1979, the House has expanded several times to meet increasing demand for family care services. In 2017, the House successfully completed a four-year expansion campaign that more than doubled capacity and enhanced vital family-centered programming and services. The House now provides a comprehensive continuum of care for 123 families every night. The House is an approved family lodging facility covered by California Children's Services and many other State-funded and private insurance plans. Accommodations are available to families of pediatric patients aged 18 years and under who live outside a 50-mile radius of the House. Lucile Packard Children's Hospital Stanford (LPCHS) social work and self-referrals are accepted. The House requests a nominal donation of $10 per night, but no family is turned away due to inability to pay. In 2016, the House served more than 700 families overnight, totaling nearly 19,000 guest nights. Advancements in the management and treatment of complex pediatric diagnoses continue to impact demand for local accommodations and average lengths of family stay. In 2016, average stays increased from 34 days to 56 days, with 30 percent of families staying longer than 60 days. Top medical treatments accessed by families staying at the House in 2016 included cardiology (34%), NICU (21%), hematology/oncology (11%), liver transplant (8%), kidney transplant (7%), PICU (5%), stem cell transplant (4%), OBGYN/Maternity (3%), General pediatrics (2%), and lung transplant (1%). A Home-Away-From-Home The House provides more than basic accommodations for families displaced by their children's medical crises. It is a comfortable, secure home for parents, patients and siblings to bond and engage through a comprehensive mix of creative and participatory programming designed to ease stress and allow them to focus on what matters most: the health and well-being of their children. Dedicated activity rooms for toddlers, adolescents and teens offer children space to play and make friends together. An onsite classroom, computer lounges, weekly volunteer activities and extended seasonal day camps facilitate fun, learning and a sense of normalcy for patients and siblings during challenging times. Comfortable common areas, community kitchens and dining rooms, laundry and fitness facilities provide parents opportunities to relax, share experiences, and build practical routines. Daily volunteer meal service, prepared in a commercial-grade kitchen and served in the dining rooms of both buildings through the megaBITES program, offer families meaningful opportunities to spend time together and alleviates the pressures of food costs, planning and preparation on residents. The program introduces advanced menu planning options and streamlines preparation and service processes enabling corporate and community groups to deliver an average of 300 servings to families at each meal. Improved menu planning led to greater meal variety, enhanced food quality.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a	Other Programs The Day Pass program offers no-cost House access to families unable to stay overnight due to capacity limitations or live nearby and do not require accommodations between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. daily. Families may utilize House resources including activity rooms, meal services, showers, laundry rooms and fitness facilities. More than 1,200 individuals benefited from the Day Pass program in 2016, constituting a 61 percent increase in year-on-year program utilization. The Happy Wheels hospitality cart program delivers snacks, personal care items and activity kits to families in pediatric patient wards at LPCHS. House volunteers offer refreshments, small toys and interactive games to children and parents, providing needed relief and entertainment to families who spend long days isolated at the hospital at the bedside of their children. To date, more than 10,000 individuals have benefited from the Happy Wheels program and more than 50 Ronald McDonald Houses have adapted versions of this service in their own markets. A Well-Maintained Facility The House offers a trusted environment for seriously ill children to stay. The expanded campus is designed to support children with immuno-suppressed conditions due to heart, lung, or stem cell transplants. Efforts to sustain a high quality facility that recognizes the fragile medical condition of its residents make LPCHS physicians more likely to discharge patients if they know the child will stay at the House. The House also engages in green initiatives, replacing all cleaning products with environmentally sustainable alternatives and continually evaluating general operations to discover additional avenues for green integration. Leveraging Resources Approximately $396,000 of in-kind goods and services were donated to the House in 2016, offsetting program expenses and offering meaningful gifts for families. In-kind donations include event tickets, cleaning supplies, clothing, games, linens, personal hygiene items, meal services, newspapers and magazines, soft drinks, and toys for residents of all ages. The House collaborated with the San Francisco Design Center and 49 of the Bay Area's top interior designers to create unique and welcoming interiors for the House expansion and legacy building renovation. Design partners leveraged their professional networks to secure an estimated $3 million of donated goods and services to outfit a 67-room expansion and approximately $530,000 of in-kind decor and furniture donations toward the complete legacy building renovation. The property on which the 123-room campus sits is leased to the House by Stanford University for $1.00 a year. The annual donated lease amount is currently valued at $1,934,008. Relying on Community Support The House receives more than 85 percent of its operating revenue from public contributions and relies heavily on volunteers to provide hundreds of staffing hours each week. Therefore, community support is critical to House sustainability. E

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4a	earned income represents less than 5 percent of total operational costs for family stays at the House. This revenue includes the nominal accommodations rate (based on ability to pay) as well as revenue generated by state-funded agencies (based on family eligibility for a id). Approximately 8 percent of revenue is sourced from McDonald's Corporation, its franchise owner/operators, and their local charity chapter. Remaining operating funds come from individuals, foundations, and corporations. Exceptional community support allows the House to offer comfort and care to substantially more families every night. Keeping 123 Families Close. In 2014, the House launched a $46.5 million, multi-phase capital expansion to increase capacity and meet demands for family care services. Phase expansion efforts culminated in the opening of a 52,000-square-foot, 67-room expansion next door to the legacy building in 2016. Phase II legacy building renovations began immediately thereafter. Unveiled in spring 2017, the 44,000-square-foot, 56-room remodel established nine additional family rooms, design continuity across the two-building campus and enhanced the functional and comfortable environment. The availability of 123 family rooms significantly reduces House wait lists and anticipates a 100-bed expansion at LPCHS expected to be completed in late 2017. The House is located only blocks from the hospital, creating easy access to specialized medical teams, required treatments and emergency services. Research on family proximity during pediatric medical crises shows a measurably positive correlation between togetherness and a patient's ability to rest and heal. Furthermore, the promotion of positive coping skills in caregivers demonstrates increases in capacity to focus on meeting the needs of ill children, themselves and other relationships, improving overall family functionality. Ronald McDonald House at Stanford keeps families close.
