Most funds support general programs, however some are designated for scholarship recipients. Additionally, there are restricted endowments, the earnings on which support general programs and a scholarship recipient. Students have the fall and spring semester up until the specified April deadline to submit all mandatory documentation. After the April deadline, a scholarship committee is selected to review all applications and essays utilizing the scoring matrix provided. The top three candidates are then selected and the winning applicants are notified via email. Select winners must provide all required paperwork prior to the funds being paid out to the schools they are attending.
