Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Since its formation in 1965, Youth Homes, Inc. is committed to serving the needs of abused & neglected foster children and adolescents in California's San Francisco Bay Area. We provide intensive residential treatment programs and community-based counseling services that promote the healing process for seriously emotionally abused and traumatized children and adolescents. We serve over 350 children and their families each year.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Transition Age Youth Services: Youth Homes provides an intensive and highly integrated approach to serving clients age 18-26 with severe and persistent mental illness whose needs have been poorly met by the traditional mental health system. A multidisciplinary treatment team provides 24-hour field-based mental health services with the goals of helping these young adults secure housing in the least restrictive setting possible, manage their mental health challenges, and increase their independent living skills. This helps reduce the amount of time they are homeless, hospitalized or placed in the criminal justice system.

Name: Youth Homes Inc

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Homes for Youth (Intensive Residential Treatment) Youth Homes operates four State-licensed, six-bed homes in several cities in central Contra Costa County for abused, neglected, abandoned and traumatized foster children aged 7-17 Two of the homes are emergency assessment shelters and two provide short-term treatment programs Youth Homes provides these youth with a wide variety of mental health support services including psychological assessment, individual and group therapy During the year, 8,030 days of care were provided to 50 foster children

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Therapeutic Behavioral Services Youth Homes has established a very sophisticated, preventative program with a highly specialized team of behavioral coaches. They fan out across the county each day to provide needed services and support to children, teens, young adults and families. These include intensive care coordination home-based services, individual therapy, case management, skill building and other community mental health services which were provided to almost 250 youth.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Foster Family Services and Family Pathways Youth Homes certifies family homes in the community with placements as part of its comprehensive system of care for foster children. This is a step-down option from its residential programs and provides for a family setting option for youth who would benefit from longer-term treatment in a family environment. The Family Pathways program offers intensive care coordination and intensive home-based services to children and youth ages 5-21, primarily with open child welfare cases. By implementing these services in conjunction with a team-based planning approach (called the Child and Family Team), this program seeks to enable children and youth to live in permanent family setting in the community rather than in institutions or congregate care.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Youth Homes is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Youth Homes in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Youth Homes' returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Youth Homes uses its CPA firm to guide the preparation of its Form 990. An accounting consultant coordinates responses to the Form 990 questions and line items. The CEO reviews the Form 990 in detail, and then shares it with the organization's Audit and Finance Committees for additional review. After that review, the final Form 990 is provided to each member of the Youth Homes Board of Directors prior to filing.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Transactions are continuously monitored for any possible conflicts of interest. Annually, all Board members and key employees are asked to disclose interests, if any, that could give rise to conflicts. When possible conflicts are identified, Youth Homes follows its internal procedures described in detail in its policies for dealing with any conflicts of interest.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Annually, the independent members of the Youth Homes Finance Committee review the compensation of the CEO. They take into account the pay range of the top management officials of other similar organizations. They determine the change in compensation, if any, and document the decision as part of the notes/minutes of the meeting. Youth Homes' Human Resources manager collects current salary information of all employees, and performs a comparison to the salaries and wages of employees of other, similar, organizations. Proposed changes to the salaries are made and reviewed with the CEO. The CEO, in turn, presents the information to the organization's Finance Committee for review and comment. When all reviews are complete, the CEO makes the final decision concerning salary changes, if any. Part VI, question 15(b) was answered "no" as there were no other officers or key employees as defined in Form 990 instructions who were compensated.
