Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Hospitality House operated six programs during FY 2018-19. The Tenderloin Self-Help Center and Sixth Street Self-Help Center are Behavioral Health-based community centers that provide a range of emergency and support services using low threshold, peer-based self-help models. The Shelter Program is a small men's dormitory that provides basic emergency shelter as well as one-on-one case management. The Community Arts Program is a unique space where individuals can create, house and sell artwork, offering open studio hours, workshops, a creative writing class, and an opportunity for artists to exhibit and sell their work. The Community Building Program includes a peer volunteer training program, program activities, and the Healing, Organizing and Leadership Development Project which is a peer community organizing internship for participants impacted by trauma. The Employment Program provides employment readiness and placement services. All programs work together to provide a range of support, resources, and opportunities for people to achieve stability and self-sufficiency.
