The executive compensation committee reviewed proposals. In spring 2016, a compensation & benefits consultant was retained by The Arc of San Diego to provide a compensation & benefits study for the CEO, Officers and Key Employee positions. Salary survey analysis included using published survey data, identifying comparable competitive organizations and presenting them with a custom salary & benefits survey to complete. Additionally, salary data from Form 990 was obtained for organizations that didn't complete the custom survey. The consultant presented their report to the executive compensation committee on August 22, 2016 and then to the board of directors on September 7, 2016, at which time the compensation for the CEO, Other Officers and Key Employees was approved. The approval process was documented.
