Name: SOUTH BAY COMMUNITY SERVICES

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Youth and Community Wellness Youth and Community Wellness provides an array of services and activities to assist youth and their families in all aspects of life including: health, education, work recreation, family, and social, as well as enhancing adult-youth partnerships. Programs include counseling, juvenile diversion, pregnancy prevention, after school programming, gang alternatives, gender specific programming, youth entrepreneurial activities, and other supportive and youth development services for at-risk youth and their families. The Youth and Community Wellness also focuses on recognizing the strengths, assets, and resiliency of youth in particular, and maximizing the potential for their long-term development by encouraging their creative abilities within a family and community context. Programs include Trolley Trestle Transitional Living Program for former foster youth, Casa Nuestra shelter for runaway and homeless youth, Independent Living Program for current and former foster youth, Mental Health Services for children and youth in the community, and the Community Assessment Team, whose purpose is to avoid at-risk youths penetration into the justice system or social service system by providing early crisis intervention and appropriate follow-up services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Behavioral Health and Wellness Behavioral Health and Wellness programs provide a continuum of services from early childhood development to transition age youth supports. This includes prevention, early intervention and treatment for our youngest populations, as well as education, and mental health counseling for school-age youth; and housing and independent living skills for youth transitioning to adulthood. Through these services and supports, youth are assisted to aspire to reach their fullest potential.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Family Wellness and Self-Sufficiency Family Wellness and Self-Sufficiency programs strengthen at-risk families and the connection with their communities through a comprehensive continuum of activities, opportunities, and services. Services include a continuum of shelters, counseling and supportive services, community advocacy, and self-sufficiency skills programs. Family Wellness and Self-Sufficiency also includes community development which promotes economic development and neighborhood revitalization, the core of which are the development of affordable housing options, social enterprise development, and community youth development projects and economic advancement for low income South Bay families. The Organization has developed extensive housing opportunities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4: Collaboratives Through collaborative partnerships, the Organization has been able to leverage linkages and other collaborative resources and services to provide a comprehensive system of youth and family treatment services, while at the same time avoiding duplication of services. The Organization belongs to three local community wide schoolbased collaboratives as well as many service-based collaboratives. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 5: Behavioral Health and Wellness Behavioral Health and Wellness programs provide a continuum of services from early childhood development to transition age youth supports. This includes prevention, early intervention and treatment for our youngest populations, as well as education, and mental health counseling for school-age youth; and housing and independent living skills for youth transitioning to adulthood. Through these services and supports, youth are assisted to aspire to reach their fullest potential. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 6: Affordable Housing The Organization owned and operated two rental housing projects, Cordova Village Apartments and Trolley Terrace Townhomes, located in Chula Vista, California to provide affordable housing to low and moderate income families. The expenses of the project are comprised of operational expenses such as utilities, maintenance, taxes and insurance. The two rental housing projects were sold on January 18, 2019.
