Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	The Corporation's current Conflict of Interest and Compensation Policy was adopted by the Board of Directors in 2006. Pursuant to this policy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. No Interested Person shall vote on any matter relating to his or her compensation, irrespective of whether said compensation is received directly or indirectly, from the Corporation.</li> <li>b. The Corporation shall endeavor to ensure that all compensation arrangements affecting Interested Persons are objectively reasonable, based on the relevant market for persons of comparable skills, training, education and experience and performing similar duties for comparable organizations under similar conditions and circumstances. The Corporation shall consider and give due weight to studies published by third parties regarding rates of compensation whenever and, to the extent that, such studies are reliable and available. In addition to the above, the Board of Directors of the Corporation annually nominates a Compensation Committee whose members are comprised of three independent Directors. The Compensation Committee is guided by their Board approved Charter as well as a Compensation Philosophy Statement. Both the Board of Directors and the Compensation Committee have relied on input from an Independent Compensation Consultant which is updated every 5 years and CPI increased annually as well as information provided by the Economic Research Institute that provides compensation information drawn from Form 990's of comparable organizations and executive compensation assessor software developed by ERI. This third party information is first reviewed and deliberated by the Compensation Committee for both the President and other officers of the Corporation. Following these deliberations, the Compensation Committee presents an annual Compensation and Benefit Plan to the Board of Directors that is reviewed in conjunction with the annual budget for the Corporation.</li> </ul>
