

Dr. Dabour[®]

the spirit of nature

About Us

Inspired by the gifts of nature in the beautiful Galilean mountain range with the water source of the Jordan river, Dr. Dabour cosmetics harness thousands of years of tradition and advanced bio-technology to extract unique handmade botanical products for skin & hair health, beauty and wellbeing for 25 years.

From research to end-product, the entire production cycle is executed at Dr. Dabour's laboratories through advanced biotech formulation methods. Our eco-friendly & vegan products are based on natural herbal ingredients such as olive leave, medicinal plants and orchid extracts.

Dr. Ziad Dabour

Holding a PhD Genetic Engineering and Pharmacology, Dr. Ziad Dabour is the father and founder of Dr. Dabour family and company. Born to a Druze family in Beit Jann, a village in the Galilee Mt. Miron Natural Reserve Ziad Dabour, spent most of his time with his farmer grandfather, learning all the thousands of years Galilee traditions and family secrets and recipes, based on the Galilee plants and extracts of olive leaves and oil.

His profound knowledge of the treasures of nature is a boundless source for producing exclusive product lines for healthy skin and a youthful complexion.

"Olive Leaves are the essence of nature and longevity for mountain citizens in the Galilee"

About Us

Our Story

It all began when Dr. Dabour's daughter, was diagnosed with Atopic Dermatitis (AD), a dermal dryness disease, that causes severe irritation, itching and pain and is treated by steroids.

As a pharmacist that is aware of the severe side effects of steroids, especially in children, Dr. Dabour was determined to find a cure that is free of chemicals for his daughter. Combining his pharmaceutical and nature knowledge, he managed to produce a special that turned his daughter's skin healthy and beautiful.

As this story spreaded, people from all over Israel and the world turned to ask for the special cream for their children and ever since Dr. Dabour laboratories are developing natural products for special skin problems.
