

ASEAN Energy News Recap

2018

Created By:

One Community
For Sustainable
Energy

In 2018, ASEAN Center for Energy has collected 2179 energy news from more than 360 media in the region, as part of our weekly service to our network.

Here we summarize some recap of what happened in 2018 in ASEAN.

What happened to ASEAN Energy in 2018 ?

Part : Renewable Energy

Exploring new technologies in RE:
floating solar,
blockchain

Unlocking new RE financing option

Bolstering ties and cooperation
for RE

AMS put serious effort to continue bringing
RE to the region

AMS set more ambitious target in implementing RE

More investment
were put for RE

In 2018,

AMS has put serious effort to continue bringing RE to the region

Some supported fact from the news:

Predicted that THI RE share could reach

>37%

by 2036

TOP 10

PHI & THI
Ranked in 'most attractive' country for clean energy investment

MLY is on its way to reach

50% RE

by 2050

LAO PDR Government

BOLSTER SUPPORT

for RE

AMS has also set more ambitious target in implementing RE

MLY targets >200,000 green jobs by 2030

PHI aims to put 1 mil. EV by 2020, THI to put 1.2 mil. by 2036

INA push the use of B30 diesel in 2019

MLY aims for 20% RE for electricity by 2025

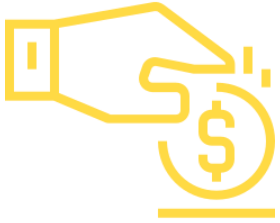

One Community
For Sustainable
Energy

In 2018,

More investment were put for RE in ASEAN

Some supported fact from the news:

Western gov. pump $20m for clean energy in ASEAN

VIN solar power investment boom

MLY records potential green project investment of RM4.1b

AMS has also bolstered ties and cooperation towards RE

EU & PHI ink 7 clean energy contracts

China, Lao PDR inaugurate RE joint lab

UK to assist MYN with RE projects

Brunei, Bangladesh explore green energy opportunities

Vietnam, ROK, partner in power & RE development

In 2018,

AMS started to explore new RE technologies, such as floating solar & blockchain

Some supported fact from the news:

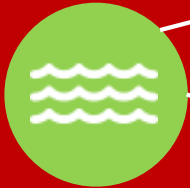

P2P solar trading using blockchain piloted in THI

SGP launches blockchain-based RE marketplace

THI utility eyes 1GW floating solar

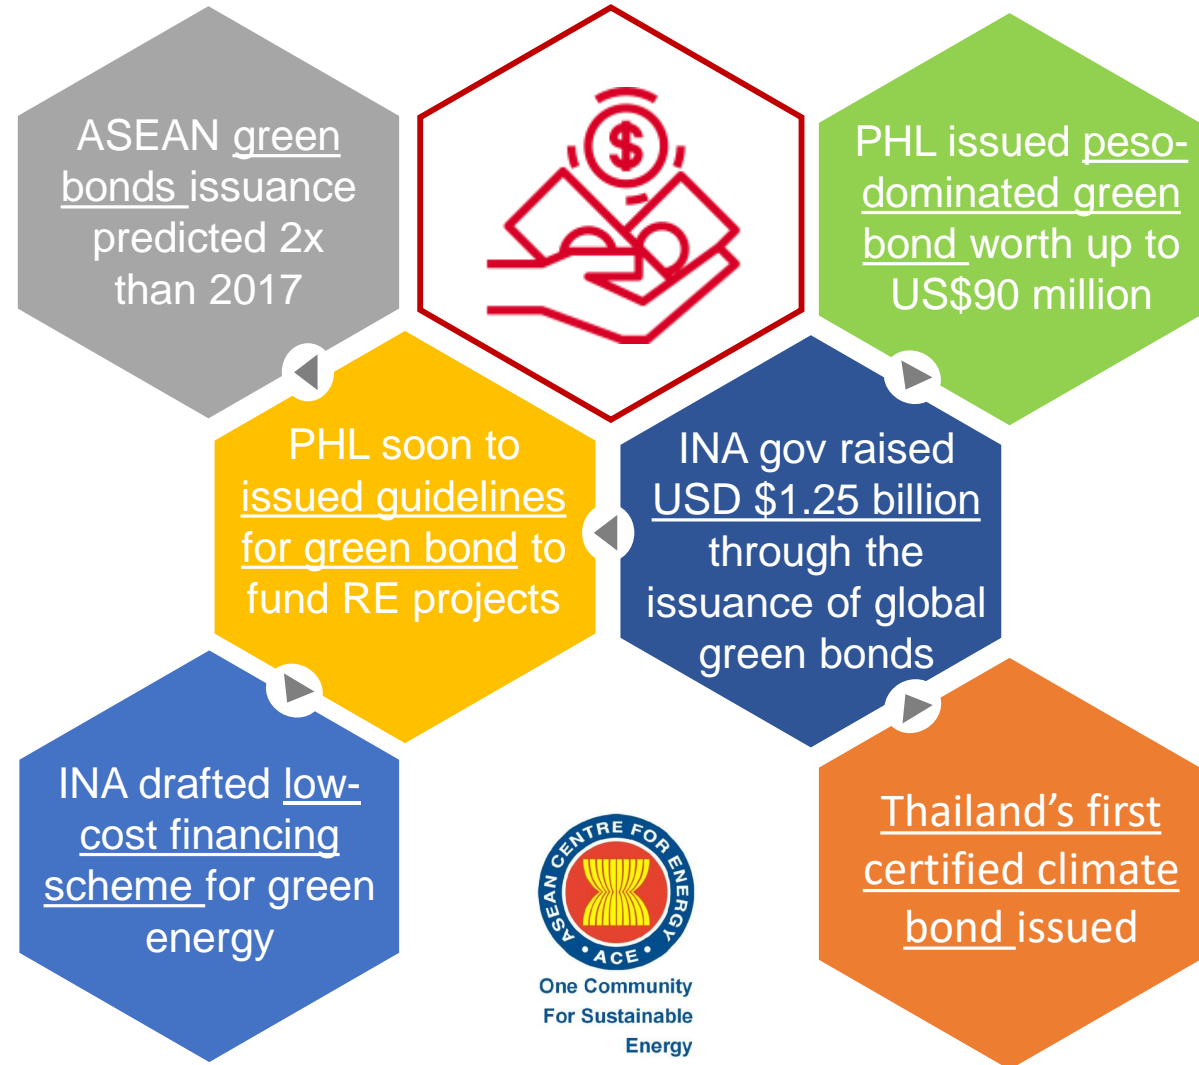

5 ha off-shore solar floating to be build in MLY

PH energy firms ready to adopt blockchain technology

ASEAN began to unlock new RE financing options

Interested to stay update with what happen in energy in ASEAN?

Please register on this link so we can extend our weekly energy news clipping service to you!