Why This Vote Matters

ADDISON · MAY 2ND

— Voting YES Means

- ✓ Mobility options for work, education, healthcare & daily needs
- ✓ Connections to regional jobs, airports & entertainment
- ✓ Service for residents who depend on transit
- ✓ Less congestion and pollution on Addison roads
- ✓ Protecting our 43-year investment in regional mobility
- ✓ Continued connection free bus service to nearby popular destinations such as the Shops at Legacy in Plano, Downtown Plano, and Downtown Dallas, and the Dallas Galleria Mall.

— Leaving DART Means

- ✗ End all DART service in Addison immediately
- ✗ The Silver Line no longer stops in Addison
- ✗ Continue paying DART tax for ~3.5 years to retire debt
- ✗ Increased congestion and pollution on Addison roads
- ✗ Greatly increased complexity, costs, and travel time, using third-party contracted micro transit services that may run into capacity constraints at peak travel times to connect to the DART bus and rail systems.

$2.1B

The Silver Line rail transit is the latest phase of Addison's regional connectivity — 43 years in the making. Leaving DART means losing our stop.
