

ECG Quiz

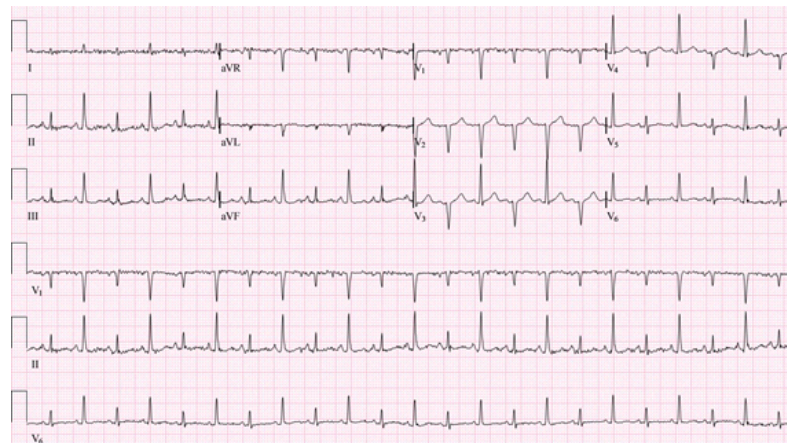

Wijesinghe RANK¹

Journal of the Ceylon College of Physicians, 2023, 54, 171-172

Question 1

This is an ECG of a patient who presented with progressive shortness of breath for one week. She has a disseminated breast carcinoma.

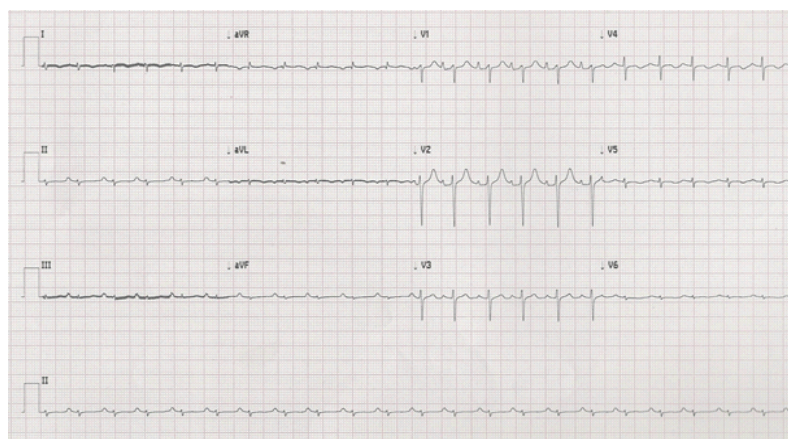

- 1.1. Identify three (03) abnormalities.
- 1.2. What is the likely diagnosis?

Question 2

This is an ECG of a patient who presented with progressive shortness of breath for one week. He has a history of heavy smoking but had stopped smoking 3 years ago.

- 2.1. Identify three (03) abnormalities.
- 2.2. What is the likely diagnosis?

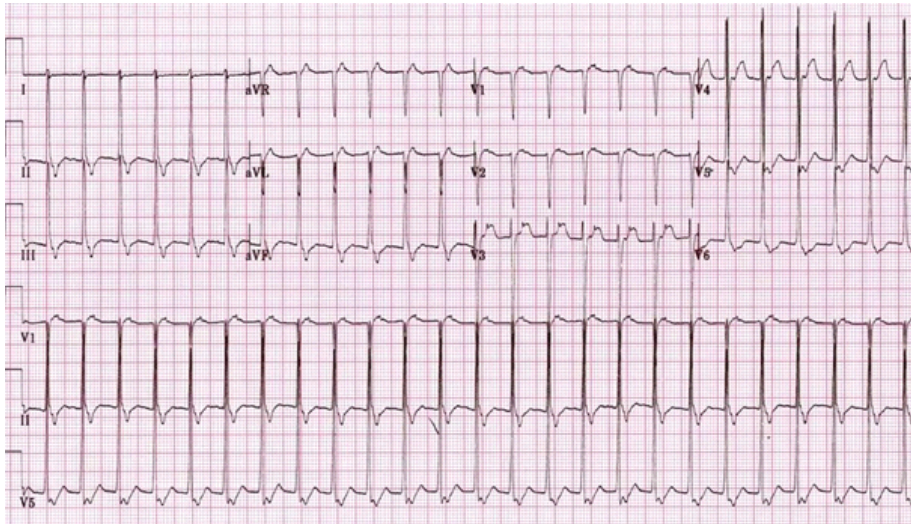

¹Professor of Medicine, General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University, Sri Lanka.

Picture quiz

Question 3

This is an ECG of a young woman who presented with sudden onset palpitations.

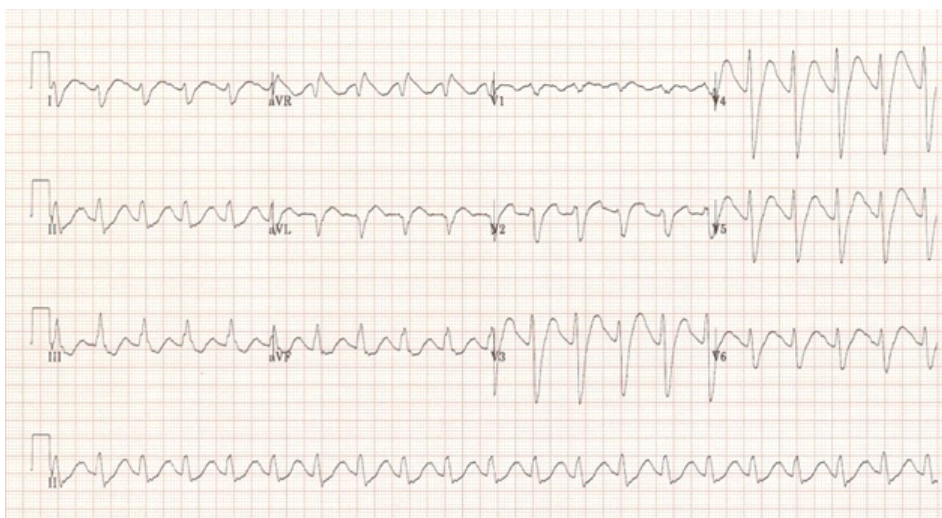

- 3.1. Identify two (02) abnormalities.
- 3.2. What is the diagnosis?

Question 4

This is an ECG of a patient who was brought to the emergency department following a drug overdose. He has a history of a previous suicidal attempt 6 months ago.

- 4.1. Identify two (02) abnormalities.
- 4.2. What is the most likely diagnosis?

(Please see the page 173 for the answers)