at the concert with your friends you cut your eyes at me roll up your skirt waist swish your hips flaunting your white skirt and go-go boots jump on the seat shriek at the singer whisper to your friends dismissing me with a wave of the hand
i don't even recognize you i chewed your friends in my mouth until i frothed silently prayed

they would fall off the seats and drop dead instead you all danced and hollered arms wrapped around each other's waists while i sat there alone tears rolling down
my cheeks
that was the longest saturday afternoon ever
