

Serials

for the international serials community

UK
SG

UNITED KINGDOM
SERIALS GROUP

www.uksg.org

Contents

Editorial	83
Introducing our Editorial Board (Rick Anderson)	84
Mini-profile: a day in the life of a corporate client services manager	85
Mini-profile: a day in the life of a publisher services manager	87

28th UKSG Annual Conference

Walking away from the 'big deal': consequences and achievements Nancy J Gibbs	89
All or nothing: towards an orderly retreat from big deals – recent negotiations in The Netherlands Nol Verhagen	95
Open access and institutional repositories: an evidence-based approach Martin Richardson	98
Journal access programmes for developing countries Fytton Rowland	104
Virtual learning environments: setting the scene Alicia Wise	107
How usage statistics can inform national negotiations and strategies Simon Bevan, Pete Dalton and Angela Conyers	116
A librarian's view of usage metrics: through a glass darkly? Jill Taylor-Roe and Cliff Spencer	124
Snap, crackle and ultimately pop? The future for serials Colin Steele	132
Reports on briefing sessions and workshops held at the 28th UKSG Annual Conference	138
The students' view	148

General articles

Business models for e-journals: reconciling library and publisher requirements? Hugh Look, Sue Sparks and Helen Henderson	157
---	-----

Key issue

Weblogs and RSS Ian Winship	162
--	-----

News and views

Profile: Peter Lea	165
People	167