

Contents

Editorial	71
Tribute to Diana Leitch	72
31st UKSG Annual Conference
Journals and the quality of peer reviewing – a customer’s perspective Muir Gray	75
Something in the water: scholarly communications in a rapidly changing information economy Kevin M Guthrie	79
A new digital platform to open up Chinese university journals: publishing, communication and some OA initiatives Ruoxi Li, Shuai Yan, Yuan Yao, Meng Wan and Jianli Qian	83
The information-seeking behaviour of the virtual scholar: from use to users David Nicholas	89
The use and abuse of usage measures Ian Bannerman	93
Mass digitization of historical records for access and preservation Dan Jones	98
The students’ view	102
UKSG Web 2.0 seminar
The adventures of LASSIE: libraries, social software and distance learners Jane Secker	112
General articles
French consortium Couperin: achievements and goals Catherine Forestier and Pierre Carbone	116
On the usage of e-journals in French universities Cherifa Boukacem-Zeghmouri and Joachim Schöpfel	121
Scientific, technological and medical journal publication in Japan Soichi Tokizane	127
Why do you lose access to your electronic resources? How an institutional identifier can help Helen L Henderson	134
Planets: integrated services for digital preservation Adam Farquhar and Helen Hockx-Yu	140
Key issue
Traditional and digital preservation: appraisal, accessioning and arrangement Amy Kirchoff ..	146
Spotlight on people
Profile: Richard Gedye	149
People	153