

Crash . . . Stenson

Ma drove kids four times limit

By PAUL SIMS

A SCHOOL-run mum was nearly four times over the drink-drive limit when she got behind the wheel with her kids, a court heard yesterday.

Kelly Stenson, 30, had downed half a bottle of vodka before slamming into a metal gate with her daughters, aged six and three, in the back of her car.

Cops at the crash scene in Wakefield, West Yorks, found the youngsters "upset and distressed", town magistrates heard.

Stenson admitted drink-driving and was banned for three years.

Magistrate Stuart Swallow told her that her reading of 171mgs in 100ml of breath was "the highest I have ever come across". The limit is 35.

GRAVE HIMSELF UP

A man hunted by cops for 14 years was nicked after escaping a shallow grave following a beating by his lover in Brazil.

LAG IN A BAG

AN inmate bent on escape is found curled up in a luggage bag by a prison guard. Convicted killer Gavinson Garcia, who is just 5ft 3ins, folded himself in a zipped suitcase — brought in by his visiting girlfriend. They thought she would only face the customary search on arrival at Yare II jail in Caracas, Venezuela. But staff saw her struggling to drag the wheeled bag near the exit. They checked it and found Garcia twisted inside with his head between his knees. Cops are treating it as an open-and-shut case.

8 cops face murder rap over cabbie DRAG FOOTAGE FURY

By HARRY HAWKINS

EIGHT cops were yesterday charged with murdering a taxi driver who was dragged behind a police van.

Shocking footage of Mido Macia, 27, cuffed to the vehicle for a parking offence sparked world-wide outrage.

Mobile phone video showed the immigrant from Mozambique being dragged in agony down the street for 400 yards. He died two hours later in a cell from head injuries and internal bleeding.

The eight officers from Daveyton township, near Johannesburg, South Africa, have all been suspended. The station commander has been removed.

South Africa's President Jacob Zuma said: "The visuals of the incident are horrific, disturbing and unacceptable. No human being should be treated in that manner." National police commissioner General Riah Phiyega announced an internal investigation into the attack, adding: "The behaviour is to be abhorred by all right-thinking people."
