

Citizen of the Year Nomination

Each year the Mayor of Clearwater selects a deserving individual to be recognized as the "Clearwater Citizen of the Year"!

The award recipient may be an individual, couple, group/organizations, or represent a local business, from within the Clearwater Community.

Nominations must include the full information on the individual, group, etc., being nominated and who is submitting the nomination. The nomination should state clearly the actions that fall within the nomination criteria above. It is the goal to recognize the Citizen of the Year during the first city council meeting in December so submissions will be accepted through the end of November.

Criteria:

- Demonstrate exceptional volunteer service that shows a dedication to making the city a great place to live, work, play or learn.
- Made a positive difference in a fellow citizen's life or has demonstrated a care and concern for the city and its residents.
- Has worked with, or organized other individuals to solve a problem in the city or has a mission to better the city in a positive way.
