FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Medway Police Department Execute Search and Arrest Warrants

Medway, MA, January 31, 2020, at about 9:52 a.m., Medway Police Department officers executed search and arrest warrants at 29 North Street, Medway. Michael Finnegan, age 42 was placed under arrest on warrants obtained after a lengthy investigation conducted by Detective Robert O'Neill. The investigation unveiled the theft of over $17,000 in funds from Camp to Belong, a non-profit organization which re-unites siblings, who are living in separate foster homes, at summer camps and other events. It was determined that the thefts took place between early August, 2019 and late September, 2019 while Finnegan was employed as Executive Director at Camp to Belong.

Finnegan is charged with one count of larceny (over $1200) by embezzlement, one count of forgery (of a Bank Document), and one count of uttering. Finnegan will be arraigned today, Friday January 31, 2020 at the Wrentham District Court.
